St Ives Hakes v Plymstock Albion Oaks

Saturday 23rd April 2016

KO 3:00p.m.

St Ives Recreation Ground

We warmly welcome all members, players, ex-players and supporters of either team to this final match of St Ives' season, against our Devon opponents from Plymstock, in the Tribute Cornwall & Devon league. It is sure to be a tough, uncompromising affair between two in form sides. This is the first time the sides have met here at Alexandra Road.

Plymstock Albion Oaks has enjoyed an excellent run of form, losing narrowly to league winners Bude last week. They would love to 'pour rain on St Ives' Parade' before concluding their season at Paignton next Saturday. The Oaks defeated Veor 47:3 in last season's play-off to gain promotion to this league. They previously had a couple of years at this level from 2008-10. Their best finish prior to this is 8th, so this season has already surpassed anything in their history since forming under their present name in 2007. Well done, The Oaks!

St Ives has previously had single season spells in this league in 2001-02 and 2012-13. They gained promotion from the runners up spot on both occasions. Head coach, Paul Thirlby, and his squad will be all out to repeat this for a third time today. Those of us who supported the club through last season will be thrilled at the progress made and will be hoping to cheer The Hakes on to victory this afternoon. In today's squad four players were very much a part of the team last year and will no doubt be all out to spearhead proceedings today; Jamie Prisk (25)*, Ben Taylor (19), Ben Jenkins (14), Tom Nicholas (13) and Louis Stevens (1).

Today's referee is Kevin Williams, who has experience at officiating well above this level. We appreciate his time and ask spectators and players to show due respect.

There is a buffet for club sponsors at 1:30pm and another at around 6-6:30pm for supporters. Club awards will be presented. It should be a great time. Please stay after the match and join us for a drink, where there are several promotions at the bar. Look out for posters about our Charity Gala Dinner at Tregenna Castle Hotel.
