So soon we arrive at the penultimate home match for The Hakes in this their first season in the Tribute South West One West league for a decade. Today our visitors are from Devon seas side town, Teignmouth. We extend a warm welcome to all, especially those who have travelled to support their team, a round trip of 240 miles.

A brief history... Teignmouth in recent seasons

To date 10th, 10th & 8th SW1W

2014-15 Champions WCW

2013-14 Runners up in WCW

2012-13 Champions of C&D

The last three fixtures at St Ives....

- 2014-15 St Ives 0:26 Teignmouth
- 2013-14 St Ives 12:30 Teignmouth
- 2012-13 St Ives 18:14 Teignmouth

From the last match between the sides on 31st January 2015, when both teams were promoted, three players are in the current Hakes squad; Tom Nicholas, Jamie Prisk and Ben Jenkins. Teignmouth have five (all in the pack) that have remained. This is sure to be a tough contest which should provide much entertainment. Two team selections for the Hakes are of note; former captain Steve Kenward plays in the centre, while Alistair Stacey is on the bench and set to make his home debut.

Our match official today is Danny Robins (CRRS). We trust that players and spectators alike will afford due respect at all times. Finally, please join us in the club house after the match for refreshment and 'a bit of a social'.

It's a fact: Stranger things in rugby have happened for sure. Last Saturday's Six Nations match between England and Scotland being a prime example. There you are, now you have something to talk about!

St Ives and Teignmouth have played exactly the same opponents in their last five outings, but in the opposite venues. Both have not seen victory in their last four games. Teignmouth's last win came against Thornbury (24:21) at home on the first Saturday in February. St Ives have to go back a week earlier to the last week in January, when they defeated Lydney at home (25-15). So, who were the five teams they played in that time?

Saturday 6th April 2019 will see the St Ives Hakes playing their last home league match of the season. I would like to invite you to come along and enjoy our sponsorship/advertisers hospitality and celebrate with the players their extremely successful season in the Tribute South West 1 West.
