St. Ives v Crediton

Saturday 8th April 2017

KO 3:00 p.m.

St Ives Recreation Ground

All too quickly we arrive at the season's penultimate fixture in the Western Counties West league. Today we warmly welcome Crediton to Alexandra Road. They have a long trip of over 100 miles. This is their first visit to St Ives since November 2012.

Like so many of our Devon opponents, Crediton run three senior teams as well as boys and girls junior sides. They celebrated their centenary as far back as 1978.

Crediton are the 'inform' side in this league, apart from runaway top teams, Exeter University and Cullompton. They have four wins out of the last five matches, although managing only one away win all season, against Wadebridge Camels on 25th March. After winning the Cornwall / Devon league handsomely in 2014-15, they finished 12th to avoid relegation last year. With their final fixture being at home to bottom club Wellington, they will likely finish higher this season.

St Ives has a strong squad, which happily sees captain Ben Taylor back as hooker. Head coach, Paul Thirlby, will be delighted to have solid back up for the front row on the bench. The rest of the side has a pretty familiar look. St Ives will be aiming for a successful outcome and could close the gap on near rivals Wadebridge and Truro. Local support will be hoping for 80 minutes of good rugby.

Our referee for today is Richard Conybeare. We trust he has an enjoyable afternoon and we appreciate his time and willingness to officiate.

Leslie Stevens remembered

The former St Ives captain is to be especially remembered today. His family are gathering at the club for a buffet lunch; a most fitting tribute. This inset is from the team photo for the 1957-58 season.
