St Ives v Truro

Saturday 4th November 2017

KO 2:30 p.m.

St Ives Recreation Ground

Today we reach the end of the first third of this season and look forward to an entertaining encounter with Truro RFC in this Tribute Western Counties West league derby match. If you are here as an advertiser, sponsor, guest, member or official, we trust you enjoy the afternoon and we hope you return soon. Your support for the continuation of rugby in this town is crucial and much appreciated.

Truro gained their first away win at Sidmouth a couple of weeks ago. They have also picked up three bonus points from close loses on their travels. St Ives have bagged three bonus point wins this season and are unbeaten at home since 14th January when Torquay, last week's foe, squeezed past the finish post two points ahead. This fixture brought a score line in favour of St Ives 35:13 exactly a year ago. No one is expecting an easy game today though. St Ives suffered a heavy defeat last week, while Truro was defeating Paignton.

The club acknowledges the commitment and impact captain Steve Kenward has made in the last year and extends warm wishes for a speedy and full recovery after surgery on his knee, due to an injury sustained against Tiverton in the home match two weeks since. Matt Nichol and Matt Holland make their home debuts today. We wish them well.

The referee for today is Danny Robins of the CRRS and we also extend a welcome to him and trust he too will have a satisfying afternoon.

Please join us in the clubhouse after the match for a chat with 'old' friends and new.
