St Ives Hakes v Newent

Saturday 20th October 2018

KO 3:00p.m.

St Ives Recreation Ground

Welcome to week number seven of the Tribute South West 1 West league. Our opponents today are Newent, rare (if ever) visitors to our town. If you have travelled as supporters from Gloucestershire to St Ives today we trust that you have an enjoyable time and witness a good contest on the field. Welcome also to our own supporters and sponsors.

After a couple of weeks' rest both teams move into the second quarter of the season pretty much 'neck and neck', situated as they are in mid table. St Ives will hope to benefit from home advantage and will be pleased with results at home this season, notwithstanding the narrow loss against table topping Launceston. The win at Lydney was a terrific performance.

Rugby was played in Newent in the early 1900s, but the club was re-formed in 1970, the logo chosen of the phoenix rising from the ashes representing its re-birth. Like many clubs, fortunes faded with the advent of the leagues. Since the start of this decade they have enjoyed considerable success, gaining several promotions, from Gloucestershire 3 to their current status. They have finished 3rd, 5th and 4th in recent seasons. They are sure to be a stern test for The Hakes. A cracking match is 'in store'.

We also welcome our match official, Mr David Allan, of the Dorset & Wiltshire Rugby Referees Society. Please show respect for him and his decisions at all times. The club and committee appreciate his visit from afar.

Please feel free and very welcome to join us in the clubhouse at any time for a pleasant mixture of refreshment and chat about all things rugby.

Alan Thomas

Team & Player News

The team is largely unchanged from last week's visit to Lydney. Rob Elloway returns at hooker and Chris Quick replaces Sean Stevens in the back row, the former restored after injury, the latter injured due to a high tackle. Aiden Muirhead makes his debut, also in the back row. Tug Wilson comes in for Pete Mabbott on the wing.

Congratulations

Director of Rugby, Joff Rowe, and his lovely wife, Zoe, have a son, Zander William Rowe, 7lbs 1oz, born at the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital on Tuesday, 16th October at 4:30p.m. The family are at home and all is well.
