St Ives v Bodmin

Saturday 5th December

KO 2:30p.m.

St Ives Recreation Ground

Welcome to St Ives Rugby Football Club for week eleven of the Tribute Cornwall & Devon League. Today we entertain Bodmin RFC and look forward to a competitive game. The weather forecast is quite poor, but we appreciate the effort of players, officials, coaches, physios and ball boys in such trying conditions.

Bodmin RFC was around from the 1880s to WW1 when it folded. Reformed in 1969 it was then a Nomads or reserve team fixture. Bodmin moved to Clifden Park in 1979, beside the A30-A38 junction. In season 2012-13 they were promoted from Cornwall 2. They then beat Totnes 17-15 in a play-off to gain promotion to this league the following year. Their 8th place last season is the highest they have ever been.

Recent away wins against Plymouth Arguam and Tavistock will give our visitors confidence. St Ives has a few changes from the side that earned a bonus point win at Pirates Amateurs last week, but will want to continue their unbeaten home run. With Bude hosting Withycombe at the top of the league, a win for the Hakes will see them close the gap, prior to visiting Withycombe next week.

Our match official today is James Milner. We trust he has an enjoyable afternoon. Please join us in the clubhouse after the match.

Player news

Two new backs have joined the club from our growing relationship with RNAS Culdrose; Greg Loydall and Bobby Conroy-Smith. Both are selected for the 1st XV this week in the centre positions. Tom Nicholas is on Fire Service duty.

RNAS Culdrose won the Royal Navy cup 19-12 against 40 Commando this week. Playing in the match was our very own quartet Sam Carter, scrum half, Guy Pallet, utility back, Greg and Bobby. Well done and congratulations to you all.

Neil Corin is out with a broken hand, along with Nathan Allen who broke his hand at work last week.

The club wishes Ben Wheeler a good and speedy recovery after a recent illness which has prevented him from playing.
