St Ives RFC extend a warm welcome to all spectators, members, players and officials in this, the seventh round, of the Western Counties West League. All of today's fixtures are shown on the back page of the programme.

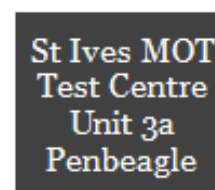

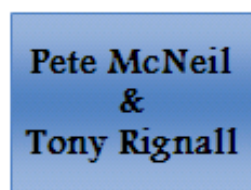

Our opponents today are Kingsbridge. After a little research there is scant evidence of meetings between the two clubs. We look forward to a good game of rugby in this Cornwall v Devon clash.

Last season Kingsbridge finished second behind Penryn in this league, showing good progress from their 9th position in 2011-12. They have gained two draws and a win away from home so far and will be determined to keep their unbeaten record.

St Ives performed extremely well in their last home fixture against Torquay Athletic. They will be striving to show similar form and endeavour this afternoon. Although the score reflects a heavy defeat last week at Truro, St Ives gifted the opposition with too many points from basic errors. This is something they will want to put right today.

Our mascots for the match are Will Perkin and Edward Beach. The match official is Mr Ian Pengelly, no stranger to our club. We trust he has an enjoyable afternoon.
