St Ives Hakes v Okehampton

Saturday 3rd November 2018

KO 2:30p.m.

St Ives Recreation Ground

We extend a warm welcome to all who have come to The Recreation Ground this afternoon to watch true live rugby on the day the autumn internationals start in earnest. This is week nine of the Tribute South West 1 West league and we trust a pleasing spectacle is afoot.

Our visitors today are Okehampton, who have played at this level since gaining promotion from the Western Counties West league in the 2015-16 season. The last time these teams met here saw Okehampton win easily in October 2014 in the Western Counties West league. In March of the previous season The Hakes had a narrow victory. Today Okehampton arrive in second place in this league with clear promotion ambitions. St Ives will have to be on their mettle if they wish to maintain their mid-table position.

The three games at this ground this season have brought 221 points, so entertainment should be on offer. Okehampton have only shipped 35 points in their three away fixtures, scoring 70 themselves in their two wins, one of which was against Launceston in September. St Ives must manage the game better if they are to get a result from this game.

Today's match official is Wayne Davis from Somerset RRS. We hope he has an enjoyable afternoon. Please show him and the touch judges respect at all times.

Finally, the club house will be open throughout the afternoon for beverages hot and cold. Do join us after the match for some further refreshment.

Team & Player News

The new name at prop is Jack Hodge, on loan from Redruth for a couple of weeks. His inclusion is due to head injuries to props Leigh Hocking and Kye Beasley. Last week at North Petherton uncontested scrums had to be engaged part way through the match. Jack was a part of the successful Cornwall U.20s last season that reached the final at Twickenham. Aden Brassington also featured in the U20s campaign in the Jason Leonard Cup.

Ben Watson also has a head injury. Sam Bartle has left the Hakes to find a more regular place in the club he decides to join. We wish him well.
