St Ives Hakes v Launceston

Saturday 29th September 2018

KO 3:00p.m.

St Ives Recreation Ground

Welcome to this the fifth week of the Tribute South West 1 West league. This is the only all Cornish affair as Launceston and St Ives are the only teams in the league from The Duchy. This is the biggest league game at Alexandra Road for some considerable time.

St Ives has not played The Cornish All Blacks in many a long year. Readers who are old enough will recall regular encounters against these old rivals. One has to go back to the last century when both teams were in South West 1 in 1996-98. Online archived league tables do not go back further. Our visitors have spent most of the intervening years in the National Leagues. They are one of very few Cornish clubs that run a second team. Last season they finished third in this league and are keen to return to the SW Premier. Today will be a great test for the home side to see how their rugby is developing and a tremendous opportunity to show their worth at this level. It should be a fascinating match.

Apart from the rugby there is plenty of hospitality today; a pre-match buffet promises to be a grand feast. The hog roast after the match, together with live entertainment will be well worth stopping for. Thanks to our good friends, Atkin Ferris Wealth Management, who are kindly sponsoring this event. Please join us in the club house at any time.

The match referee today is Mr James Grant from Devon Rugby Referees Society. We extend a warm welcome and trust he enjoys his visit to the home of The Hakes.

Team & Player News

The forwards have a familiar look. Chris Fuca makes his home debut, while Ben Watson (replacement) is from RNAS Cudrose and has represented the Royal Navy, makes his home debut Jack Kessell continues at centre and Rhys Brownfield at fly half with Grant Thirlby being unavailable. Making his first ever appearance for the club in the backs (as replacement) is Dan Magee, formerly of Hayle RFC and more recently, Pirates Amateurs.

10 Years Ago – from the club’s history.....

In 2008-2009 St Ives won the Cornwall Knockout Cup, beating Camborne 10:0 in a close game at St Austell. Tony Stevens lifted the Solid Silver Cornwall Knockout Cup for the 7th time, but this saw the end of the coaching staff of John Navin, Mark Rowe and Shaun Parton.

St Ives came 4th in SW2 West with Hano Dirksen leading the try scoring charts with 15 tries during the league campaign. St Ives players Hano Dirksen and Ben Taylor went on to represent Cornwall in the County Championships. Ben became the 111th St Ives Player to represent Cornwall.

Today, Ben Taylor and Tom Nicholas are still with the Hakes. Awesome!
