St Ives v Teignmouth

Saturday 12th February 2013

KO 2:30 p.m.

St Ives Recreation Ground

We extend a very warm welcome to our opponents, Teignmouth, for the latest round of fixtures in the league. What a prospect today's fixture brings. It is difficult to avoid using clichés. This is the fixture of the season in the Tribute Cornwall & Devon League. It is the match that stands out on the rugby calendar. Both teams are hot favourites for promotion, but the winners will likely become league champions. Interestingly, recent league opposition was the same for both teams; Saltash and Pirates Amateurs. However, Teignmouth played at home, while St Ives travelled away. So what indicators does the form guide give us?

Last Saturday Teignmouth played Drybrook from Gloucestershire in the South West Final of the RFU Senior Vase, a high point in the club's history. From the outset of league rugby they were placed in the Cornwall & Devon League, where they have remained, but for one season when there was re-balancing of the leagues in 2000-1. They immediately gained promotion from Devon 1, beating Mounts Bay in the play offs in 2001-2.

As the awful weather continues so does disruption to continuity, with a number of postponements in the league. We are still unsure of the situation regarding Plymouth Barbarians. Patience and encouragement are the virtues required by spectators today. Thanks must go to those who keep our pitch in such good condition in the most difficult of circumstances.

Finally, we warmly welcome Jonathan Billing, today's match official and ask, as always, that full respect is given from the touch line and the field of play.
