St Ives Hakes v Hayle Lions

Saturday 26th September

KO 3:00p.m.

St Ives Recreation Ground

Welcome to the fourth week in the Tribute Cornwall & Devon League. Today we extend a special welcome to our old rivals from Hayle. The weather is set fair and many of you, as ex-players, will be enjoying the buffet, reunion and, of course, the local derby.

After the disappointments of last season, with the club struggling, a few people decided to give rather than give up. Thanks must go to the hard working committee, on a practical as well as administrative level. The club has new coaches, a Director of Rugby and a number of new signings. Already these are all making an impact.

St Ives come into this game unbeaten and will be keen to continue in this form. Only five remain from the team that last played a home league match against Hayle, one that included Rich Humphries, Mark Sherris and Ceiron Thomas. Today, there are several on the injury list, most notably, Sam Heath and Nathan Allen. Only four names would have been seen on the St Ives team that played Wadebridge in March. However, more than half the team are from St Ives.

This game is a charity fundraiser and the club will be sporting their new Cancer Research shirts that they will wear for any fundraising games and cup games. Make a note that Newquay (A) are St Ives' 1st round opponents next Saturday. Please donate generously.

Our match official today is, Alastair Bolton. We hope he has an enjoyable time with us. Also thanks to the ball boys and our mascot for today's match, Ellis Marsden, from the junior section of the club.

Players' Reunion

There is a drinks promotion between 6:30 – 7:30pm prior to the big screen showing of the all-important England v Wales match.

Result to watch: Bude v Falmouth. This is third v second in our league. We could overtake one of them today, or both if they were to draw.
