St Ives Hakes v Newquay Hornets

Monday 28th March 2016

KO 2:30p.m.

St Ives Recreation Ground

It has become something of a rarity to have 1stXV rugby on an Easter Monday afternoon in recent years. Therefore, we are very pleased to be staging this rearranged match between St Ives and Newquay Hornets, originally scheduled for 13th February. Welcome to The Recreation Ground for this Tribute Cornwall & Devon league fixture.

Newquay Hornets are going through a difficult time. After spending several seasons in the Western Counties West league, where they never fully consolidated their position, they moved into this league. Following relegation to Cornwall One in 2013-14, they bounced back up last season with an unbeaten record. However, they have found the C&D league to be very tough and are now rooted to the foot of the table. As a fellow Cornish club we understand something of their predicament and hope that better days lie ahead for them.

St Ives has not faced Newquay at home since 2012. Results against them have produced high scores for the Hakes. Today the Hakes are in search of a bonus point win, a convincing performance and a score to help their overall points' difference. While our players have had over a week to recover, The Hornets entertained Pirates Amateurs on Easter Saturday. The away side's win moves them to fifth place with games in hand. Perhaps this puts into perspective our own result against The Pirates?

The club is pleased to announce the appointment of a new steward. Linsey Griffiths, formerly from Chesterfield, has plenty of experience in the hospitality industry, having run two pubs. She is currently living in Hayle. Today beer is £2.00 a pint so we hope you will enjoy a drink (or two) from the bar after today's match.

We appreciate all of our match officials and the time they give to help our sport. Today's official is Simon Lord and we trust he enjoys his afternoon with us.
